PROBLEM REPRODUCTIVE OPPRESSION REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE ADVANCING A REPRODUCTIVE SOLUTION JUSTICE MOVEMENT Developing the leadership and building · Systematic denial of women and girls' self-· Women and girls have the economic, social and determination and control over our bodies, and political power and resources to make healthy the social, political and economic power of lowincome women of color and their communities so decisions about our bodies, sexuality and limiting our reproductive choices. they can survive and thrive. reproduction for ourselves, our families and our communities in all areas of our lives. Advancing a concrete agenda that wins real Control and exploitation of women and girls through our bodies, sexuality and reproduction individual, community, institutional and societal changes for poor women and girls of color. by families, communities, institutions and Women and girls, and our communities achieve complete physical, mental, spiritual, political, society. • Integrating issues and constituencies that are economic, and social well being. multi-racial, multi-generational and multi-class in order to build a more powerful and relevant · Impacts women and girls individually and as a group as well as our families and communities. · Women leaders and activists achieve selfgrassroots Movement. determination and full human rights for women Building a network of allied social justice and human and girls. rights organizations who integrate a reproductive justice analysis and agenda into their work. ROOT CAUSES OF REPRODUCTIVE GUIDING PRINCIPLES OPPRESSION Recognize and support the leadership and power of the most excluded groups of women The regulation of reproduction and exploitation and girls. of women's hodies and labor is both a tool and a result of oppression based on the intersections of race, class, gender, sexuality, ability, age and Support the full expression of identity and sexuality. immigration status. • The control of women's bodies, sexuality and · Build alliances across differences of race, class, gender, sexuality, ability, immigration reproduction is often connected to the regulation status, age, and all other differences. and control of communities of color. Recognize and address the multi-layered impact of power and oppression, whether internalized or externalized.

Table 1. ACRJ's Reproductive Justice Agenda